

Immersed in Religion

As part of a week-long crusade sponsored by 70 Detroit-area Churches of Christ, 17-year-old Sue Monroe stands in a tank (left) on the floor of Cobo Area to be baptized by total immersion (above) by the Rev. Ray Dillard, pastor of the Van Dyke Church of Christ. She was one of several persons baptized last night as thousands filled the arena to hear evangelist Jimmy Allen, of Searcy, Ark. The crusade continues nightly through Sunday.—News Photos by Howard Shirkey.
